

Each year the MOD recruit around 200 individuals into the regular Army to work in a variety of roles with animals.

- - Dog Handlers initially work with protection dogs moving on after experience to specialist search animals. <https://www.army.mod.uk/rolefinder/role/43/dog-handler>
- - Veterinary Technicians look after injured and sick animals as well as manage veterinary equipment. <https://www.army.mod.uk/rolefinder/role/216/veterinary-technician>
- - Household Cavalry. Mounted Regiment Troopers spend time participating in Royal and State ceremonies. Individuals are also be trained to operate armoured reconnaissance vehicles. <https://www.army.mod.uk/rolefinder/role/74/household-cavalry-soldier>
- - Kings Troop Royal Horse Artillery. Gunners in the Kings Troop form the Royal Artillery's ceremonial saluting troop performing in many state and public events. <http://www.army.mod.uk/artillery/regiments/24679.aspx>

Customer groups:

- 17 years 6 months to 32 years 11 months.

Qualification requirements:

- Dog Handler. No qualifications required.
- Veterinary Technician. 4 GCSE Grade C or above including English Language. Must also be registered as a Veterinary Nurse.. .
- Household Cavalry Regiment. No qualifications required.
- Kings Troop Royal Horse Artillery. No qualifications required.

Please promote these opportunities to customers looking for a career in the Armed Forces or a job which involves working with animals. Applications are submitted on line <http://www.army.mod.uk/join/join.aspx>