

Creative Thinking

Learning by having fun has always been at the heart of the Daydream mission.

Creative Thinking is what our future workforce needs, and it was clear there should be a qualification in it!

Projects are fun and created by companies like Lego, The Ellen MacArthur foundation, Glasgow School of Art, SkyScanner and lots more.

Choosing Creative Thinking in S3

To study Creative Thinking in S3 you will take part in a variety of short projects to encourage creativity. This will lead you nicely to the Level 5 and 6 qualification in S4/5/6

Choosing Creative Thinking in S4/5/6

Now you can get credit for completing Daydream Believers projects! You will study in a Scottish Credit and Qualification Framework at levels 5 and 6 (24 points) The course is set by Napier University and is seen as a desired qualification for those wanting to pursue a creative career.
